APPENDIX.

Michigan Compiled Laws 1929, Sec. 13976:

"Limitations of personal actions; periods. Sec. 13. All actions in any of the courts of this state shall be commenced within six (6) years next after the causes of action shall accrue, and not afterward, except as hereinafter specified: Provided, However:

1. That actions founded upon judgments or decrees rendered in any court of record of the United States, or of this state, or of some other of the United States, and actions founded upon bonds of public officers, actions founded upon covenants in deeds and mortgages of real estate, may be brought at any time within ten (10) years from the time of the rendition of such judgment, or the time when the cause of action accrued on such bond or covenant;

2. Actions to recover damages for injuries to person or property shall be brought within three (3) years from the time said actions accrue, and not afterwards;

3. Actions against sheriffs for the misconduct or neglect of themselves, or their deputies, actions for trespass upon lands, for assault and battery, for false imprisonment, for malicious prosecution, for malpractice of physicians, surgeons or dentists, all actions for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture on any penal statute brought in the name of the people of this state, and actions brought to charge any surety for costs, or on bond or recognizance given on appeal from any court in this state, shall be brought within two (2) years from the time the cause for action accrues, and not afterward.

4. Provided, further. That actions brought to charge any surety on any bond of an executor, administrator or guardian, may be, and in all cases shall be brought at any time within (4) years after the discharge of such executor, administrator or guardian;

5. Actions founded upon libel or slander shall be brought within one (1) year from the time the cause of action accrues and not afterwards:

6. Provided, further: That actions brought in the name of the people of this state, the state of Michigan, or any political subdivision thereof, or in the name of any officer or otherwise for the benefit of the state or any political subdivision thereof, for the recovery of the cost of maintenance, care and treatment of persons in hospitals, homes, schools or other state institutions, shall not be subject to the limitations of this section and may be brought at any time, without limitation, the provisions of any statute notwithstanding.''